

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, This nation was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Homer J. St. Onge has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which makes this country a great place in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Homer St. Onge has reached his 70th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Homer has given much to this country during his lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Homer on this momentous occasion; and,

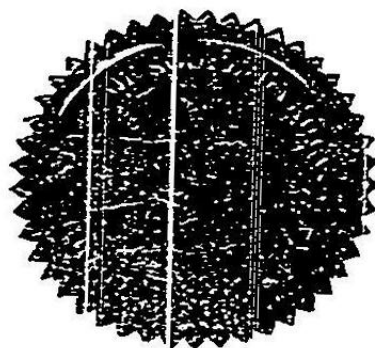

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Homer St. Onge's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of these United States:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. HICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing Homer a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

HOMER ST. ONGE DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltime
